

Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 15 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:

Warm or very warm sunny spells developing.

Today:

A rather cloudy but mostly dry start but sunny spells will develop through the morning, the best of these across eastern parts in the afternoon. With light winds it will feel warm or very warm in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Tonight:

Some late sunny then clear spells, however cloud expected to increase at times overnight, perhaps bringing a little drizzle to the far northwest. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:

Another dry and bright day with some good spells of sunshine developing. With winds remaining light it will feel warm or very warm in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:

Rather cloudy start for many Saturday but a generally dry weekend with some warm or very warm sunshine around. Cloudier start Monday but brighter again later.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.